We understand that this gentleman and true Republican, will certainly be re-elected to the Legislature from Jefferson county.

Married.

On yesterday evening, at the bride's residence in this city, by Rev. Mr. Carson, Mr. Wm. B. Lones and Miss Virginia C. Raley.

Miners' Strike.

The miners at work in Messrs. Kennedy & Morrow's coal bank, near Careyville, struck for an advance of two cents a bushel. They had been getting four cents and wanted six.

Shipments of Cotton.

We learn that since Cotton is looking a little upward in New York it is being shipped forward as rapidly as possible. Our road, it is hoped, may reap some of the harvest of freights.

Fine Pigs.

We saw yesterday a pair of Pennsylvania White Chester pigs, bought by Mr. C. W. Charlton, three months old, the weight of the woe being upward of a hundred and thirty pounds.

More New Rails.

We understand it is the intention of our railroad officials to put down about fifty miles of new iron this winter. The rails are to be of the best quality—fish bar connection. We are glad to note this evidence of their prosperity.

Knoxville Manufactories Triumphant.

We heard that Clark, Quail & Co., have received a premium on their car wheels at the Atlanta Fair. This Company is now filling large orders for wheels to go South. They will soon increase the capacity of their works to make twenty-five wheels per day.

Adieu to Bachelorhood.

From the 1st of October up to the evening of the 24th inst., yesterday, there were thirty-eight marriage licenses issued, showing that there are many believers in the Scriptural counsel that "it is not good for men to be alone"—or women either.

Fine Sweet Potatoes.

Mr. A. K. McBeth, of the good county of Blount, left in our office yesterday, four sweet potatoes, weighing in the aggregate fourteen pounds. They were of the Mexican Yam species, and must be well adapted to this climate. Mr. McBeth has about 150 bushels of them, which were produced on a small lot of ground.

The First District.

The canvass in the First Congressional District is getting livelier every day. Mr. Taylor's friends say that he is coming up to Colonel "Joem" on the home stretch, but they have not much expectation of getting ahead of the Red Fox.

The Custom House.

Mr. Wilds, the Superintendent of the Custom House building, is pushing the work on the excavation as rapidly as possible. He has a good force of men at work, and the most skeptical cannot now longer believe the whole project is an electioneering dodge. Mr. Sanford will take off ten feet of his building today, so that with the removal of the livery stable the whole lot will be open to be worked.

Tennessee Products at the Georgia State Fair.

In the list of premiums awarded at the Georgia State Fair we notice the following recognition of Tennessee products:

Largest crop of oats per acre, Alex. Kennedy, of Blount county, Tennessee, $25.

Best variety of wheat, produced by Hough and Crough, of Knoxville, $25.

Best bushel of oats, honorable mention of Hough and Crough, of Knoxville.

To Clark, Quail & Co., Knoxville, for railroad car wheels, diploma.

Signs of the Zodiac.

A philosopher in the West, given into admiration of the Cherry Pectoral, writes Dr. Ayer for instructions under which sign he shall be bled, which blistered, and which vomited, and under which he shall take Ayer's Pills for an affection of the liver; also, under which sign his wife should commence to take the Sarsaparilla for her ailment. He adds that he already knows to wear his calves under Taurus, change his pig in Scorpio, and his hair in Aries, and sink his feet in Pisces or Aquarius as their condition requires.

Schoolmasters, start for Wisconsin, and visit Mr. Ham when you get there.—Laurel Daily News.

The Criminal Court will continue in session this week.

Knoxville and Kentucky Railroad Litigation.

There has been an important Chancery proceeding pending for some days before Chancellor Temple, which was terminated yesterday morning. We noticed some days ago Gen. Mabry had secured an injunction against the newly elected Board of Directors of the Knoxville and Kentucky Railroad from preventing them from claiming his claim to the Presidency of the road. The motion to dissolve the injunction was heard last Thursday. The case was decided yesterday in an opinion, as we are informed, of great ability and clearness. The motion to dissolve was sustained.

It was claimed by Mr. Mabry that Messrs. Ross and Edwards were not eligible for directors. The dissolution allows the Board to proceed with their election of officers. The new Board consisting of Messrs. McGhee, Sanford, Ross, Fouché, Edwards, Dickinson and Chamberlain, held their meeting next Saturday, and will proceed to the election of the Company's Officers for the ensuing year. It is more than probable that Mr. McGhee will be the one chosen to succeed Mr. Mabry as President of the road.

Stockholders Meeting.

The first annual meeting of the stockholders of the Eastern Division Fair was held at the Board of Trade rooms yesterday evening.

On motion, P. Dickinson was called to the Chair, and C. W. Charlton requested to act as Secretary.

The committee appointed to audit the accounts of the Treasurer, made their report, which was satisfactory, and it was ordered to be spread upon the records.

On motion of C. M. McGhee, the meeting resolved to elect a Board of nine directors to take charge of the business of the Society. The following gentlemen were elected:

C. M. McGhee, J. A. Rayl, P. Dickinson, J. S. Boyd, T. O'Connor, C. W. Charlton, H. S. Chamberlain, G. M. Branner and Jno. Williams.

Resolutions were adopted providing that the Directors should hold their office for twelve months, and that they should have power to pass by-laws, &c.

It was resolved that in the future, the regular meetings should be held on the first Tuesday in November.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

Fast Living and its Consequences.

When "fast life" has undermined the strength, destroyed the appetite, impaired the digestion, and stolen the hue of health from the cheek—when the hand trembles, the spirits droop, and the whole physical and mental organization languishes, is it possible to repair the evil and restore the dilapidated system to full health and vigor? We answer that it is.

Hundreds of cases have been cited, in which this regeneration has been accomplished by the regular and persistent use of Plantation Bitters. Abstinence from the indulgences which have wrought the mischief is, of course, one of the means of restoration. But it is not sufficient alone. The consequences remain after the cause has been abandoned. A wholesome and genial tonic is absolutely necessary to rouse the corporeal and mental energies from their state of collapse. This good work it is the mission of the Plantation Bitters to perform. But no other stimulant must be taken.

Sea Moss Farine from pure Irish Moss, for Blanc Mange, Puddings, Custards, Creams, &c., &c. The cheapest, healthiest, and most delicious food in the world.

A Word to Emigrants.

If the citizens of East Tennessee knew what they would have to pass through in leaving their old homes to seek a better one out West, they would hesitate before doing so. After leaving Chattanooga they are crowded into box cars like cattle, and treated worse until they arrive at their destination. In many instances the emigrants arrive penniless and are forced to labor at anything they can find to do, and we doubt not but that hundreds would gladly return to their old homes if they only had the means wherewith to come. We heard of a family from one of the upper counties who by assiduously laboring for nearly three years, succeeded in scraping together enough money to bring them back, and they are now perfectly satisfied to remain and lay their bones in the soil of the old State where they have lived all their lives.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following real estate transfers were registered in the office of the County Court Clerk for the week ending October 21st:

Fannie M. Logan to S. T. Logan, lot in Knoxville; $3,000.

E. N. Parham, J. Weatherford et al. to John Faulkner, lot in Knoxville; $600.

R. M. Bearden et al. to R. R. Bearden lot in Knoxville; $1,000.

Margery Bell to John S. Van Gilder, tract of land in Knox county for $1,130.

Wm. S. Anderson to John S. Van Gilder, tract of land in Knox county; $307.88.

John L. Moses to Daniel Kleinborts, lot in Knoxville; $250.

John Williams et al. to Perez Dickinson; tract of land in Knox county $11,000.

S. L. Tillery and John Tunnell to R. M. Tillery, tract of land in Knox county; $2,300.

Robbery.

Joseph Jones, of Morristown, was drinking freely at a saloon on Wednesday night, and after treating a couple of strangers to a drink of whiskey, went out with them, whereupon one of them asked Mr. Jones if he had any money, when he foolishly answered in the affirmative, whereupon the second told him to fork over, and upon his declining to do so he was knocked down with a stick or a glass bottle and robbed.

On yesterday Constable Netherland arrested a fellow named Jim Jones, who was recognized as one of the pair, and brought before Esquire Joutelmon, who in default of bail for his appearance at trial to-morrow, committed him to jail. Another party was arrested, but Mr. J. promptly excused him and he was released.

Book Store.

The Book Store of O. B. Smith & Co., 108 Gay street, has been greatly improved by the putting up of new pictures and other features of interest. This firm is showing enterprise and is bound to keep up with the times.

MARYVILLE SCHOOL FOR FREEDMEN.

Learning Practical and Work Honorable.

This school is now fairly underway, and prepared for pupils. Besides the usual primary course, means are at hand for training young men and women to teach. A Normal class will be organized next month; or as soon as pupils come in and are fitted for it. Those who wish to prepare for the Teacher's vocation are invited to take steps at once to secure this opportunity by applying to the principal; and those at a distance by looking for boarding, or fixing hours of attendance to suit their distance from the school. Learning will thus be found practical, and the exertion of getting it will lay the foundation of honorable success in future years.

Grammar, Geography, History, Etymology and Natural Science taught thoroughly and by speedy methods.

YARDLEY WARNER, Principal.
MARYVILLE, TENN., Oct. 28, 1870.

Our Circulation.

This is the last issue of the DAILY CHRONICLE for October and closes our sixth month. The "little bantling" during all this time has steadily grown until now it has the largest circulation of any daily paper published in East Tennessee.

There are several of the most important points to business men, such as Kingston, Maryville, Athens, Cleveland, Chattanooga, Jonesboro', Sevierville, and other places, where the circulation of the DAILY CHRONICLE exceeds that of the Press and Herald and Whig and Register combined. We have the figures before us and can sustain our statements. Our circulation is general, extending to all parts of the State, and we say without qualification, that the CHRONICLE is the best advertising medium now offered to business men. We have the figures to prove what we say.

Directors Meeting.

The Directors of the Eastern Division Fair met at the Board of Trade rooms yesterday morning at 10 o'clock and organized by the election of the following officers:

Col. G. M. Branner, President; Capt. H. S. Chamberlain, Vice President; S. T. Atkins, Treasurer; Rev. C. W. Charlton, Secretary, and Col. C. S. Mariner, Superintendent of grounds.

A committee of three, consisting of J. A. Rayl, C. W. Charlton and Capt. H. S. Chamberlain, was appointed to draft by-laws for the government of the Society.

African Wines.

It is generally known that Cape Colony produces the most delicious wines grown on the face of the earth. A cargo received as a remittance by our neighbors, Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., contains several varieties raised there, among which the Constantia commands the highest price of any wine in the world. Almost the entire crop of it is consumed in the palaces of Europe, this rare exception being sent to them in exchange for their medicines, which have long been the staple remedies of South Africa.

Entangling.

We are pleased to notice that our fellow citizens, Maj. Thos. O'Connor, is enlarging his Saddle manufactory on Second Creek, near the Clinch street bridge. There are several hands always employed in this business, and it has become one of the thriving institutions of the city. These saddles are sold all over the South, and are an evidence of the growth of our manufacturing establishments.

The German Lutheran Church.

We are informed that Prof. Knabe and Haecker propose to give a concert some time next month for the benefit of the German Lutheran Church of this city.

The congregation have built a church which is an ornament to the city. The expense has been borne almost entirely by the members. This concert, it is hoped, will clear off the debts still unpaid, and when the time comes we hope our citizens will liberally aid the good work.

The Custom House.

Work on the Custom House excavation has been suspended for a few days, at the request of Messrs. Smith and Daily, to give them a chance to remove their stable. Work on cutting off ten feet of Sanford's warehouse is progressing. As soon as these removals are completed an increased force will be put upon the excavation, which is to be nine feet deep, 120x70.

"THE UNIVERSAL AYER."—On my journey over the continent—through Turkey, India, China, Japan, Peru, Chili, Paraguay, Brazil, and Mexico, and the United States—in them all to some extent and in some a great extent, I have found the universal Ayer represented by his family medicines, which are often held in fabulous esteem. Whether they win their marvelous reputation by their cures, I know not, but I know they have it to such a degree that it frequently gave me a distinguished importance to have come from the same country.

Died.

Saturday morning at eight o'clock, at the residence of Mr. S. B. Boyd, Mrs. CYNTHIA BOYD, aged sixty-five years. She had been afflicted with rheumatism for a number of years. Funeral services will be held in the First Presbyterian church this afternoon at half-past two o'clock, when the remains will be taken to the cemetery for interment.

Incurable Act.

Last evening some one attempted to set on fire the residence of Mr. Joseph Eakin, who lives on Bellevue street, North Knoxville. The family had just eaten supper and Mr. E. had gone out when he discovered a pine torch burning under the door step, which had just caught, but not having made time to get the fire extinguished without any difficulty.

Broom Factory.

One of the new features of the manufacturing interests of the city is the broom factories. In another column will be seen the card of T. E. Champion & Son. They have procured the services of an experienced workman who has made every class of broom in use. They have improved machinery, good corn and facilities for doing good work.

Nursery.

We call attention to the advertisement Captain S. N. Bell, who offers a fine assortment of fruit trees adapted to this climate.

THE DOUBLE WEDDING.

An Interesting and Impressive Ceremony.

The great event, in anticipation of which the fashionable circles of Knoxville society have been earnestly and constantly agitated for some weeks, transpired yesterday morning at the Second Presbyterian Church in this city. As early as nine o'clock, the expectant friends of the brides and bridegrooms began assembling at the church.

Which had been prepared specially for the interesting occasion. The windows had been duly darkened with heavy curtains and the chandeliers dimly light, so that at the proper signal the gas jets might shed their brilliant light upon the bridal party. The spacious Church was literally crowded, every seat was occupied and large numbers were in the vestibule without, waiting to be admitted to the aisle and other vacant standing places when the party should enter. While the bridal party was congregating at the beautiful residence of Perez Dickinson, Esq., (where Mr. Cowan's family are residing for the present,) preparatory to the drive to the Church, the large audience within the walls of the Church building, were admiring the very tastefully arranged display of flowers, wreaths and grasses, which hung gracefully about the pulpit, the very sight of which suggested that the taste and judgment of Mrs. Lucy Alexander had supervised it. Promptly at ten, the hour designated, the organ, under the touch of Mr. Alvin Barton, broke forth an appropriate march, which was the signal to the anxious company that the

BRIDAL PARTY had arrived. In response to the melodious strains, at the aisle on the right of the entrance, appeared Miss Ellen Rhea, attended by Perez Dickinson, Esq., who preceded Miss Maggie Rhea and Rev. Perez D. Cowan, one couple of the bridal party. Simultaneously, up the left aisle moved Mrs. Lucy Alexander and Mr. John L. Rhea, preceded by Miss Bella Cowan and Dr. R. M. Rhea, the other bridal couple. The party entering by the right aisle, in step to the inspiring march, moved by the face of the altar, Miss Rhea and Mr. Dickinson taking their position at the head of the left aisle, standing at right angles to the pulpit, Miss Rhea and Mr. Cowan following, took their position immediately in front of the pulpit, facing half way to their left. Mrs. Alexander and Mr. J. L. Rhea, passing from the left aisle by the front of the pulpit, took their place at the head of the right aisle, and Miss Bella Cowan and Dr. Rhea to the right, the whole party forming a semi-circle, facing the audience. At this point in the ceremony, while the organ was still sounding and the full gas light reflecting upon the party, the scene was rich and dramatic, displaying with fine effect

THE FULL TOILET

Of the bridal party. Miss Cowan was very elegantly attired in a heavy white satin dress, with trail, heavily trimmed with point applique lace. A pale veil, covering her face and extending over the back down the skirts of the dress, was crowned with a wreath of orange flowers. A pair of white kids, extending well over the wrists, with lace handkerchief and fan and white satin slippers, completed her dress. The bride herself appeared with her accustomed ease, a perfect picture of grace and beauty.

Miss Maggie Rhea was dressed in white satin, tastefully trimmed with heavy satin folds and orange flowers. A veil, similarly trimmed and arranged to Miss Cowan's, hung gracefully about her person, her whole dress and appearance making her a fit counterpart for her sister bride.

Mrs. Lucy Alexander was beautifully attired in rich lavender silk, trimmed handsomely with white satin, and appeared with all her usual grace and elegance.

Miss Ellen Rhea wore a "Moon on the Lake" silk, trimmed with rich fringe.

The gentlemen were in full dress, black cloth, white vests, ties and kids.

The bridal party moved up the aisles and took their positions with dramatic ease and precision. The march ended, the marriage was pronounced by the Rev. N. Bachman, the faithful pastor of the church, in a few very appropriate and brief remarks. The solemnity of the event was made impressive by his pertinent allusions to the sacred character and origin of the marriage rites.

The ceremony ended, the party moved out and took carriages at the church door for Mr. Dickinson's residence, where a few of the near relatives of the party partook of an elegant dinner.

At one o'clock, the party took the Chattanooga train. They were joined at the depot by S. T. Logan, Esq., and bride, who was married on Tuesday night, as noticed. The three couples will take an extended trip North and East, via Cincinnati, Cleveland, Niagara Falls, Albany, Boston and New York.

Aboriginal Relics.

We were shown yesterday by Major Underwood, a large piece of wampum, found in a cave near Newport, Cocke county, while prospecting for zinc, and also the skeleton of one of the aborigines. The skeleton was of gigantic size, and from the car taken in its interment the unknown defunct must have been of great prominence in his day. The remains were interred beneath an overhanging rock, in a sitting posture, and the sides walled up with stone. In this rough crypt were found one hundred and fifty-eight pieces of wampum, varying in size from a silver dime, though much thicker, to a Mexican dollar, each piece being concave on one side, beautifully polished, and perforated through the centre. The wampum seemed to be made of some thick shell of what might have been the covering of some monster tortoise or land terrapin, coeval with the mastodon and long since extinct.

"Dandy Jack" at Atlanta.

We notice by the Atlanta papers that "Dandy Jack," from Hawkins county, was not successful in the great trot for the citizen's purse of $2,500. He came out without discredit, however, having made the mile in 2:22. We see, however, that he was awarded a special premium in the class of blooded Morgan stallions.

$100 Challenge!

It is stated that one tablespoonful of English Female Bitters contains as much medical properties as one bottle of any of the advertised grog-shop Bitters of the day, and the proprietors offer a challenge of $100.

Died.

On yesterday morning at twenty minutes past twelve, Mrs. MARY McGRATH, mother of our townsman, John McGrath, in the forty-second year of her age.

Libel Suit.

We are informed that Mr. Wm. Goddard, of Blount county, has indicted the Press and Herald for libel, laying his damages at $50,000.

The work on the Custom House is progressing very satisfactorily.

FINANCIAL.

Stock and Gold Market.

(EXCLUSIVE TO THE DAILY CHRONICLE.)

NEW YORK, October 29.—The following is a summary of the week's events:

Borrowing rates, gold, and the subsequent temporary look-up of currency, with an episode of two days' activity and a slight stringency in the money market, have caused the operators of Canada banks to sell gold in one instance, and to withhold the proceeds thereof in another. Canada banks and their operators, although they have unsettled values and caused lower prices in the gold room and on the stock exchange, have really been only a relief to the monotony of Wall street for some time past. The announcement that the attention of the District Attorney had been called to the Canada banks checked their operations. The speculative community is mixed in regard to the future course of speculation, but the chances are in favor of an active and lively time after the fall elections. The bank statement is favorable. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed, to-day, $93,000 on account of the November interest, making a total of $3,250,000. Gold dull, with last sales at $111. It opened $1.11, remained steady all day, closing a shade lower than yesterday.

NEW YORK, October 31.—Wall street has been quiet this afternoon, and the market is without any feature of interest. Money is exceedingly easy. Sterling is dull at 91a9d. Gold opened heavy and lower, ranging from $1.11 to $1.11. During the afternoon it was weak, but at this close rallied to $1.11. Government securities opened weak and lower, and closed dull and steady, with light transactions. Coupons, 134; 62s, 123; 64s, 111; 65s, 113; new, 101; 67s, 101; 68s, 101; 48s, 64. Ten 60s, 62; new, 601; Vas., 644; Las., new, 66; levees, 72; 8s, 87; Alas., 100; 5s, 70; Gas., 6s, 82; 7s, 90; N. Cas., 48; new, 27; S. Cas., 82; new, 67. Southern securities are quiet and steady, with scarcely anything doing in them.

COMMERCIAL.

Knoxville Wholesale Market.

Review of the Produce Market for the week ending October 31, 1870.

KNOXVILLE, October 31, 1870.

Since our last report, we notice an improvement in the demand for both wheat and oats. Nothing is doing in lard. Sides would find ready sale, but joints are not wanted so late in the season. The active articles in the dried fruit trade for two weeks past has subsided, and the tendency is lower prices.

We quote as follows:

WHEAT—Readily taken at 95¢ for prime white, 75¢ for red, as to quality, and 80¢ for Walker or Amber, as to quality.

CORN—Too early for shipment. A limited local demand at 58¢. If we can get a material reduction in freights, we will have a large demand from the South. The present high railroad tariff will turn orders to the West.

OATS—In demand at 30¢ for white, sacked in depot by car load at 42¢.

FLOUR—Limited supply. The local trade is supplied at $2.50 per sack. The shipment of this article to the South will depend much upon railroad freights.

BACON—Supply almost exhausted, closes out at high prices, owing to the scarcity of the article. Early curing will meet a ready sale at full prices, but prices will look low next summer. No transactions for want of stock.

LARD—Nothing doing. This article will be in demand early in the incoming season.

FEATHERS—Fair demand at 60¢ for prime mixed 30¢.

EGGS—Better supply. 55¢ for 30¢.

EGGS—Worth 50¢. Packed for shipment 30¢.

DRY FRUIT—Dull. Pared apples 30¢; peaches 30¢.

IRISH POTATOES—Large shipping varieties readily taken at 50¢ per bushel.

GREEN APPLES—Well selected, large, smooth apples are wanted at 40¢ per bushel, for shipment.

BEEF CATTLE—Our butchers continue to pay 2¢ per lb. gross.

MUTTONS—Worth $2.00 per head.

PORK HOUSE—Nominal. It is thought 65¢ gross, will be paid for early slaughtering.

Knoxville Retail Market.

Apples—dried, 40¢; green, 40¢; Lard, 70¢; Butter, 30¢; Eggs, 50¢; Meal, new 50¢; Beans, 18¢; Potatoes, 10¢; Oats, 30¢; Corn, 20¢; Rice, 20¢; Sugar, 10¢; Coffee, 20¢; Tea, 20¢; Spices, 20¢; Candles, 10¢; Soap, 10¢; Oil, 10¢; Flour, 20¢; Wheat, 20¢; Corn, 20¢; Rice, 20¢; Sugar, 10¢; Coffee, 20¢; Tea, 20¢; Spices, 20¢; Candles, 10¢; Soap, 10¢; Oil, 10¢; Flour, 20¢; Wheat, 20¢; Corn, 20¢; Rice, 20¢; Sugar, 10¢; Coffee, 20¢; Tea, 20¢; Spices, 20¢; Candles, 10¢; Soap, 10¢; Oil, 10¢; Flour, 20¢; Wheat, 20¢; Corn, 20¢; Rice, 20¢; Sugar, 10¢; Coffee, 20¢; Tea, 20¢;
